break my day
i don't love you anymore anyway take me down and joke in fear I don't believe you anymore anyway

is it strong enough
is it plastic faith
is it all that you wanna see?
Can't you see you look so frightened to me
Is this all that you wanna be?

Play me down shake my day
live in doubt and love in fear I don't see you anymore anyway

is it all that you wanna see?
Don't you know you look so frightened to me
Is this all that you wanna be?

Break me down....

put me down
wake my day
leave my dreams memory's seared I don't need you anymore anyway anyway, is it plastic faith?

Anyway, is it plastic faith?
Anyway, is it mastic faith?
Can't you see you look so frightened to me

INDESTRUCTIBLE

I made it 'round focused on time kept breathing regularly driven by your delight keep comin' in but keep missing the spotlights kick hard to be recognised my hoping is slender but still leading the game with all your lust

you hide in the cold

truth hurts lets lovers divide all the senses are out of place our freedom's disguised i'm coming in deep it will hit you harder rearranging your bucket list what did you think we were trying? we were trying not to bleed

you keep shaking my heart break, breaking my heart

running with the wind confession overload naked in my sins tripping in the cold I'm freezing to the bone infected by the storm holding up my hands screaming in the sands evil lullabies no answer from the skies no solution just lies

it's just in my head I will be happy home again a tickling in my brain silly words again breaking in my ear sparking little fears spreading out again seducing me again

running in the rain running from the pain black trees are everywhere surrounding me and scare I don't wana be phobophobia

LONG GONE

the river calls it floats within drives me on and lets the dreaming begin shadowed falls grow endless spins my braided heart knows where my thoughts have been it's all on, all on my mind so strong, so intense and light and I, feel that I..

hold on, stay strong till the break of dawn, the break of dawn and I hold on, stay strong and here I come it's not all long gone

a gentle wind invisibly thick this tremor's born conjures up a new trick this solid ground cracked open to free and spread spirit widely float so peacefully years ago I felt, I saw and nothing has really changed but still I struggle against the storms could someone say my name say my name

BACK AGAIN

I wander through the days sunburnt and desiccated seeking the things that still amaze me been missing you for much too long cause we were riding the horses

turning winter to summer and never looked back again we were hunting the sunlight then we kissed in the rain turned nights into days and

I remember our dear places hidden from the world outside I can't prevent to shed a tear, no don't wanna believe these days are spent is this calling reminding me of us is it all shining still? sometime ago we knew that we had all we loved baby we had it all

we were riding the horses but we'll never go back again
we used to kiss in the rain

ADORE

no time in this room no ticking inside just hoping the liquids won't dry in your mind so you hide the rain with no sense of shame all your days are like this no joy and no pain just wasted hours and nothing's sincere and you stare again at blanks and useless games you have lies in the drawer have pockets full of rage but all hope lies in the color of the rain and the flaws on your skin they never sank in your mind is true and telling you things so you walk in doubt and all you see is empty pages and no return

and all this suffering in vain just hold on, Mary Jane don't you swallow, it's just hollow hold on, Mary Jane it's just hollow, don't you swallow you have towers in the darkness to save you from the light and you wished you had fled to cities where nobody cares for ends and how this world bends your mind is clear and telling you, my dear you still walk in doubt and all you fear is

don't you feel like forever when you laugh again
don't you see all in colour
don't you hate being sour just laugh again it's not overly over

WAKE UP

everyday you play you cling to all your fake desires can't you see it's over now there's no other way, go!

far away far away
longing for the day

are you aware of what's the cost

hidden and secure locked up in your comfort space you keep forcing me to leave you here trying to make it all ok, yea

go on, go on, another one

silence slowly grows with time blows the heaviest kiss goodbye embraces dearly

frozen pictures on crying walls pretending to revive closed calls a weeping mile

attempts to keep it out of mind a miserable fail

fill this place with elegies reconquer all that once was me and lead it to an end

RUSH

it's time for you to fade it's time for you to leave become a higher love and live a better day trust me you'll be fine just a little sting to make you feel again cradling the pain will make you alive would sing you more

be dancing with the wind crying with the rain you'll feel more than alive in your skin

hush try not to speak no hollow words that make you weak buried in the night

cradled in the pain makes you alive sings you more
dancing with the wind
feeling more alive

all the hurt and all the shame all the anger all the blame fall apart and set you free fall apart and let you be all the love and all the lust all the dreams and all the trust return to you

SOBER

All this is transient reflective and good and though the days slip through our hands we know we could

Can all of us wise up in the time we're given to spend? or should we long for a miracle ?

Everyone's waiting and everyone listening and everybody's hanging on the words you say it's just odd how things turn out when you know how to turn the things around and you know why I don't wanna be here no more why I don't want see you no more will we become clean? how?

Be sober again?
Or will we stick to all of this crap till we slowly fade

I am still waiting desperately listening don't wanna be hanging on your words and pray it's now!

This is all I need to know it's where I want to go And this is how!
I just need to stay away head high and walk this day head up high and walk this day

old town, I'm heading down, freaking out cold light, feelin' tight, poisoned heart look up, wake up, I'm creeping closer don't play hard to get, be a good girl make me believe in life again hurry up and meet me in the night come meet me in the night

I keep running, I keep coming for you I keep running, sister, oh my
I keep running, sister, all night look up, don't stop, devote to me close your eyes, feel the highs of love and lust breathe in, hold your breath and receive wet touch, never felt that much before make me believe in god again don't hold back the shiver let me in

WHAT HAVE I BECOME?

I remember spring days, light and clear full of confidence when my whole world was shining bright faith and trust were entwined

it's all gone
what have I become?

a fresh and bracing wind, the dew what a day to be born I believe in all what life could give a childish love embraced it all

what have I become?

I have decided to stay cause I have come here to play this is givin' me all I need
and I have come here to play cause this is what I want what I need I've come to stay

though all the others leave

ANEW

looking back the way I've walked now countless forks and hidden paths life has taught me an intrigued lesson a little luck is not enough I always wanted to reach out further what's beyond the big blue sky? all that stays is small and humble but once again I have to try it's time to leave it all behind to start anew - to find

look ahead, a big step forward used to say "no risk no fun" stumbling like an old man, really a tired soldier's lonely march now get up from your knees, you coward you have to keep on moving I hope you always walk beside me without you there is no need to try

something new - to find
